2.Protests Against Enforced Disappearances in Balochistan

For several days, protests have been ongoing across various cities of Balochistan, including Quetta, Kalat, Hub, and Mastung, against enforced disappearances. Relatives of missing persons, have staged sit-ins on key highways, demanding the safe recovery of their loved ones.

These demonstrations have led to the closure of major routes, including the Quetta-Karachi Highway, Quetta-Taftan Highway, and the Taftan Highway near Mastung district, severely impacting transportation and daily life.

The Voice for Baloch Missing Persons (VBMP), a prominent advocacy group, has been running a protest camp for over 5,751 days. This prolonged protest underscores the persistent nature of the crisis and the failure of authorities to address the grievances of affected families. The families, many of whom include women and children, continue to demand justice and transparency in the cases of enforced disappearances.

Human rights organizations have repeatedly expressed concerns over extrajudicial detentions and the lack of due process. The protesters are calling on the government, judiciary, and international human rights bodies to take immediate action. Despite occasional assurances from authorities, the lack of tangible results has led to growing frustration and distrust among the affected families.

As the protests persist, the resilience of the Baloch people highlights their unwavering commitment to seeking justice for their missing loved ones. The issue of enforced disappearances remains a significant human rights concern, requiring urgent and transparent action from both national and international stakeholders. The families continue their peaceful struggle, hoping for the safe return of their loved ones and an end to enforced disappearances in Balochistan.

Human Rights Analysis: Enforced Disappearances and Extrajudicial Killings in Balochistan

The human rights situation in Balochistan has reached a critical point, with alarming reports of enforced disappearances, extrajudicial killings, and widespread state repression. The data from February 2025 highlights a disturbing trend of arbitrary detentions and unlawful executions by Pakistani security forces. This report provides a concise analysis of the crisis, emphasising the urgent need for intervention.

1. Enforced Disappearances:

In February 2025, 134 cases of enforced disappearances were reported across multiple areas of Balochistan, as well as parts of Punjab and Sindh. Many individuals were subjected to mental and physical torture before release, with 50 people freed after suffering inhumane treatment.

2. Protests Against Enforced Disappearances:

The crisis has triggered widespread protests across Balochistan. Relatives of missing persons have staged prolonged sit-ins, demanding the safe return of their loved ones. Demonstrations have led to major highway closures, disrupting transportation and daily life. The Voice for Baloch Missing Persons (VBMP) has been protesting for over 5,751 days, highlighting the persistent failure of authorities to address the issue. Despite repeated calls from human rights organisations, governmental assurances have failed to yield tangible results, leading to growing frustration and distrust.

3. Extrajudicial Killings:

Reports indicate that Pakistani security forces continue to detain and execute individuals without due process. In February 2025 alone, 18 cases of extrajudicial killings were documented. These unlawful executions have heightened fear and insecurity, while the lack of independent investigations and accountability emboldens perpetrators.

Conclusion and Recommendations

The deteriorating human rights situation in Balochistan demands urgent action. Authorities must be held accountable, and immediate measures must be taken to ensure justice and transparency.

Recommendations:

- 1. Independent Investigations: Conduct impartial inquiries into enforced disappearances and extrajudicial killings.
- 2. Legal Accountability: Prosecute those responsible and uphold the rule of law.
- 3. Government Transparency: Ensure clear records of detainees and adherence to due process.
- 4. International Pressure: Call for diplomatic and economic measures to address ongoing violations.
- 5. Support for Victims' Families: Provide legal and rehabilitation assistance to affected families.

The resilience of the Baloch people underscores the urgent need for a collective response. Enforced disappearances and extrajudicial killings are grave human rights violations requiring immediate and decisive action from national and international stakeholders.
